FIRST TIME IN DALLAS

The 17th Arya Maha Sammelan of Arya Pratinidhi Sabha of America is being hosted by Greater Dallas Arya Samaj this year from July 19th to 22nd, 2007 at Richardson Hotel, Richardson TX 75081. The theme of this year's Arya Maha Sammelan is once again centered on Simplification and Communication of Vedic values to our next generations. We will be holding combined and parallel sessions/workshops of adults & youth during this event. Please encourage your youth to take an active part in the proceedings. The participants will have an opportunity to listen to distinguished speakers from all over the world and participate in Yoga, meditation, Yajna and cultural activities. More details.

South Meets West India at Jeevan Prabhat

Tsunami Affected children from Jeevan Prabhat Pondicherry have come to visit their brothers and sisters of "Jeevan Prabhat" Gandhidham. These children are here to visit their brothers & sisters from a distance of 3000 kms and will be staying here for Five weeks. In "Jeevan Prabhat" Gandhidham they will learn about the culture of Kutch and also many other day to day things like craft, painting etc. which will be useful to them when they go back to Pondicherry. Who Is Your Best Friend ?

By Dr. Frank Morales, Ph.D. (Sri Dharma Pravartaka Acharya)

Do you have friends? Of course you do! Who doesn't have friends? To even pose such a question would seem silly to many of us. As human beings, most of us are social bynature, and we need to express our need for relationship in the form of our many friends and loved ones. Most of us even have one or two people who we would call our very best friends – people whom we trust completely, and who we know are always there for us in times of trouble. Read More

Accolades for DAV Montessori Houston

Dear All: Namaste. I just want to share with you this letter received from Shri. Soni Malik one of the parent of DAV Montessori School. Every year we receive so many complements from our young students parents. If we really want to spread the message of Vedas, we need to start at the very gross root level. I feel very proud that both our DAVM School & DAV Sanskriti School are doing such a wonderful job in this respect in the Houston community. Hope you can start thinking of similar schools in your locations. Regards, Dev Mahajan Read More
